

Gordon Wiegand

Dr. phil

Gummenacher 4A
2562 Port
+41 79 883 81 76
gordon.wiegand@mailbox.org
<https://h0lzauge.github.io/lebenslauf>

Expert in strategic and operational value creation from data, with over 15 years of experience at the intersection of business, IT, and science. Specializes in establishing data governance structures, leading complex data projects, and statistical modeling. Proven track record in the digital transformation of federal agencies and large corporations.

Aug 7, 1975

Education

2011 - today

On the Job

Several (SCRUM, project management, etc.).

2009 - 2011

Dissertation (PhD)

University of Basel.

Topic: bias reduction in Sample Surveys.

Final mark: summa cum laude.

1995 - 2000

Studies in Sociology and Economics.

University of Leipzig.

Focus: empirical methods and statistics.

1 year Erasmus at University of Teesside, UK.

1982 - 1994

School

Several schools in Colombia and Germany.

Final exam (Abitur) at Gymnasium Ruhla.

Tech-Stack & Methods

Governance & Strategy: data policy design, master data management, TOGAF, agile methods, Scrum, ...

Data Science & Analytics: statistical modeling modeling, predictive analytics,, bias correctiong, visualization, ...

Tools & Software: extensive experience with programming in statistics (eg R), data bases, data governance tools, business analytics tools, and many more.

Sprache: English. Basic knowledge in French and Spain.

-- For hobbies and other personal matters, please visit the website --

Career History

2018 - 2022

Data Officer

Federal Office for Customs and Border Security (FOCBS)

Establishing data governance: Designing and setting up the first data governance organization.

Strategy: Development and implementation of an agency-wide data policy.

Major digital project "DaziT": Leading a team of business analysts to develop and maintain a cross-functional data model.

Process design: Implementation of a software-based data management system (domain model, ownership, responsibilities).

Quality assurance: Ensuring data quality at the technical and process levels, as well as representing the FOCBS in federal e-government committees.

2011 - 2018

Statistician &
Data Scientist

Post CH AG

Innovation & finance: Analysis of financial and goods flows; bridge-builder between business units and IT for the successful implementation of data projects.

Award: Winner of the internal innovation award for the development and implementation of data-driven solutions.

Projec example: Predictive Analytics for Forecasting Package Arrival Times Optimization of Logistics and Controlling Processes.

Customer insights: Analysis of customer journeys and conducting complex customer satisfaction surveys.

2005 - 2011

Research Associate

FHNW University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland, Institute for Competitiveness and Communication

Services for External Clients: Project Management in Statistical Consulting and Market Research for leading clients (Novartis, BFS, Mediapulse, EU).

Methodology Development: Development of new sampling plans for TV ratings (Mediapulse) and bias-reduction methods (LINK Institute).

Faculty Position: Teaching in statistics, research methods, and questionnaire design (Business Administration & Applied Psychology).

2001 - 2005

Freelancer

Research assistant at GIABmbH in Erfurt, Germany, for four years

Six months management staff at FER Mexicana in Puebla, Mexico (automotive industry).